
ABOUT PARTNERS HOME CARE

Partners Home Care is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing high-quality, cost-effective health care, health education and supportive services in the home and community setting to children and adults, including those who might not otherwise receive that care.

- Affiliated with world-renowned Partners HealthCare.
- Provides more than 360,000 skilled nursing, therapy, social work and home health aide visits per year throughout eastern MA.
- Offers specialty services, programs and support groups, with experts in diabetes, heart failure, orthopedics, pulmonology and wound care, among other specialties.
- On November 1, 2006, established Partners Hospice, serving 56 communities in Boston and MetroWest.
- Provides $1.6 million annually of uncompensated care for home care and hospice patients who are underinsured or uninsured.

TEE-OFF FOR HOME CARE

The goal of the 14th Annual Tee-Off is to raise $360,000.

- Last year's proceeds helped to provide 2,100 visits to seniors with cardiac disease, diabetes, cancer and post-surgery recovery needs.
- Funds from the Tee-Off make up one-fourth of all annual charitable contributions to Partners Home Care.
